

Introducing your Romsley Parish Council

Richard Arrowsmith
Chairman

Richard lives in Dark Lane with his wife and young family. He has lived in the parish for the past 8 years.

He is a senior member of the Civil service with the Highways Agency, responsible for many aspects of managing our motorways and major roads.

He is a Political Economist by profession and believes strongly in efficient and high quality public services. He also believes that every pound of taxpayers money matters and everybody in public or elected office must be transparent and accountable for the money they spend and the decisions they make.

Louise Bestwick
Councillor

Louise Bestwick lives in Dark Lane with her husband, 5 year old son, 4 year old daughter and her 6 year old Border Collie. She has lived in the parish for 8 years.

Louise has been a Primary School Teacher in Birmingham for the last 10 years. She loves living in Romsley Parish and is passionate about making a great parish even greater.

Ruth Mullett
Parish Clerk

Shaun Bolar
Vice Chairman

Shaun Lives in Dark Lane and was born, raised and educated in the Halesowen area – moving to Romsley in 1995

He is a Cost Consultant and Project Manager, working within the construction industry for over 26 years, holding the position of Company Director, for the past 18 years.

His working experience has involved engaging with a wide range of clients in both the private and public sectors. These include Local Councils, large Housing and Social Care Organisations, School Governors through to Banks and Premier League Football Clubs.

Derek Tilt
Councillor

Derek lives in Hillcrest Road and has resided in the parish since 1960. He has served as a Parish Councillor before and as Chairman in 2000.

Derek's interests are gardening exhibiting Chrysanthemums and Auriculas and he is the Parish council representative for the village allotments. He has also helped in the running of the village horticultural show for the past 21 years and will continue to be involved in village life in the future.

David Powell
Councillor

David lives in St Kenelms Road with his wife and young son. He has lived in the Parish since May 2012

He is a certified Programme and Project Manager and works for a global business as European Continuous Improvement Manager utilising my Lean Six Sigma training to improve process performance.

He is keen to know our parishioners and consult with them in the way funds are spent. He wants to help to bring transparency in our dealings and to utilise as many methods of communication as possible to keep everyone in the parish informed of what we have done and what we intend to do.

Lesley Gray
Councillor

Lesley lives in Dark Lane and has resided in the parish for twenty-seven years.

She is a retired teacher and spent the majority of her career in a school for children with special educational needs. She is keen to get Neighbourhood Watch up and running again and on maintaining our Parish as a place we are proud to call home.
