5. Correspondence.

- The council agreed not to adopt the phone box at Pennylands Bank.
- Letter of thanks had been received from Evesham Volunteer centre.
- The council agreed to accept Mr S Bullen invitation to address the next council meeting.
- Parishioners and the council are very concerned as to the work being carried at Leadon's Caravan Park, the park has a licence to construct further units on the site, the works are not covered by planning regulations, therefore there are no statutory requirements for waste and grey water.

CHILDSWICKHAM PARISH COUNCIL

Cllr Patrick will draft a letter to be sent to Cllr Eyres with a copy to Broadway council, as Leadon's is within Broadway parish, however the impact of the run off water and extra waste material will impact on Childswickham.

- Fly tipping at Murcot bank will be reported to Wychavon District Council, all fly tipping can be reported to Wychavon <http://www.wychavon.gov.uk/cms/community-and-living/street-care-and-cleaning/fly-tipping.aspx> or phone Client Services on 01386 565018.
- The wind had brought down and damaged chestnut trees at the brook, this was reported to WCC and they have instructed contractors to remove one tree and to make the others safe.

6. Planning.
