- 2057 The report of the Stock and Bradley Relief in Need Charity was submitted by Mrs Forgaard.
- 2058 The report of the Footpath Officer was given by Mrs M Fish who said that more volunteers are always required – Thanks were expressed to Mrs Fish and her team for their time and dedication.
- 2059 QUESTIONS OR STATEMENTS FROM MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC:
The issue of speeding in the village was raised, District Cllr Mrs A Steel reported that speeding is an issue with every Parish Council that she visits, the police are doing what they can but there are only 2 to cover Droitwich and the surrounding areas. Ian Connelly at the Safer Road Partnership reported that the speeds recorded for S&B were higher than those allowed under Health and Safety for the residents to carry out the process of “Speed Watch” in S&B themselves!
A new “state of the art” Vehicle Activated Sign (VAS) has been purchased and will be erected later in April and will be moved periodically between Stock & Bradley Green.
- A planning application for 26 dog kennels in Middle Road was discussed.
- The meeting closed at 8.02 p.m.

Signed Chairman: .....
