Cllr Johns to investigate the need for an alarm upgrade.

10. To Consider the Site of the Playing Field Store.

The site of the shed needs to be moved to the rear of the MUGA, as explained by Mr Bowden.

The council supports this proposal in principle. However, to enable them to ratify it, they require the following:-

- a. A copy of the tennis and football club's written agreement to the amended proposal, which Adrian confirmed the rugby club has obtained.
- b. Confirmation with a plan, that the shed can be positioned so that there is a gap of not less than 750 mm to allow for maintenance between the shed and the fence.

11. To Consider 'Welcome to the Village Pack'.

A welcome pack, to be given to all new residents of the parish, had been considered before, but not progressed due to logistics.

Wychavon provide information for new rate payers, along with which the parish could include a leaflet to be sent out. <http://www.shapingservices.co.uk/2015/04/welcome-to-the-village/>
Cllr Sly to progress.
